McLennan County Election's Website

McLennan County, Texas – This month the League of Women Voters of Texas gave the McLennan County Election's Website an Outstanding rating for the 2024 General Election

Out of 254 Counties, McLennan County was one of sixty-two counties to receive this ranking. This ranking is given to counties that provide accurate, accessible, and useful voter information on a safe and secure election website. McLennan County's Election Website has received an "Outstanding" rating from the League of Women Voters of Texas every year dating back to 2019.

McLennan County takes the elections process very seriously and is dedicated to providing a secure and precise voting experience for eligible citizens in the county.

Elections Administrator, Jared Goldsmith, said "receiving this rating from a non-partisan and reputable election group is an honor. McLennan County's voters should feel confident that our website is an accurate source of local election information."

Election information can be viewed at the following links:
